

South West of England - Geography Y3

County - England is split into areas called counties, these areas have their own councils who make decisions about local issues.

Coastline - The line of the coast, where the land meets the sea.

The Gulf Stream - A current of warm water that moves across the Atlantic Ocean before reaching the South West of England.

The Jurassic Coast - A stretch of coastline from Devon to Dorset where the rocks date back to the Jurassic period, where many fossils have been revealed as the rocks are eroded.

Stonehenge

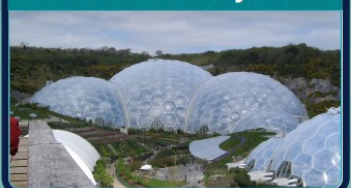

Glastonbury Tor

Tintagel Castle

The Eden Project

Tourism - When people travel to an area for a holiday or visit.

Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty - A special area of land that is protected because of its beauty and importance.

Moors - Large areas of land where no crops are grown, often covered in heather.

Agriculture - Farming.

Arable - Growing crops for farming.

Pastoral - Raising animals for farming.